Dear Harold Weisberg

Dragør 21/8-91

Thank you very much for your letter of august 13th. which I have just received, including the clipping from "Washington Post".
I think it is very interesting that you have been in contact with some danish people through the years, and in that connection I can tell you, that the family "Seidenfaden" which you have mentioned in your previous letters, are very well known here in Denmark and are mentioned in the danish "Who's Who". A member of the family by the name of Thøger Seidenfaden, is chief-editor of one of the leading conservative newspapers in Denmark "Berlingske Tidende" which by the way is the oldest newspaper in the world, it was founded in 1749,

The other danish family you mention, Borup, seems to have been some very interesting people, and your description of the house they were living in, where Georg Washington once have been staying, give me the impression that the area you are living in is a historic place. Even that I think the present time is fascinating, the story of the american revolution and independent for over 2oo years ago, is quite as interesting.

To get back to your reply to my requst for information on your legal proceedings against the government, I appreciate your comments on this, and the address you gave me on your legal lawyer Mr.Lesar.
I have send a letter to Mr.Lesar, and ask for the information you mentioned.
I am not surprised that your legal proceedings did not get very much attention in the american press. In my opinion it follows your effort to get your books published, the refusal from publishers and other people in the media-business to touch such dangerous material, because of the pressure from higher authorithy.

I am very pleased that you give me permission to publish your books in Denmark, but in the first place I have only intended to use the material for personly use, because it will take quite some time to get through all the books. But I can assure you, that if I ever get finished with a translation in danish, I will certainly send a copy to you, and Professor Gerald McKnight.

Thanks again,

Lasse Larsen
